

JEAN MONNET NETWORK PROJECT ON MIGRATION AND ASYLUM POLICY SYSTEMS – MAPS

Outsourcing and cooperation with third countries

8 July 2020, 17.00-20.00 CET = 18.00-21.00 EET

A(nother) webinar on zoom

PROGRAMME

Welcome: Professor Giuseppe Cataldi, Università di Napoli L'Orientale; Coordinator of the EU Jean Monnet Network Migration and Asylum Policy Systems – MAPS

Coordinator: Professor Maria Gavouneli, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens

I. Images from the past: The EU-Turkey Statement and beyond

Keynote speaker: Dr Markos Karavias, Director, Greek Asylum Service

- Do we have a functional system of cooperation with third countries?
- Are the readmission agreements signed by European states an effective model for migration management?
- Lessons learned? What role for outsourcing in the new European Pact on Asylum and Migration?

Discussants: Dr Danai Angeli, Bilkent Universitesi

Vasileios Papadopoulos, President, Greek Council for Refugees

- How this Statement has been received and implemented in practice in Greece and Turkey?
- What new provisions should an EU-Turkey Statement 2.0. contain?

Laura Letourneux, Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3

- EU Border and Coast Guard Agency – FRONTEX working arrangements with third countries

Professors Ana Nikodinovska Krstevska, Olga Koshevaliska and Elena Maksimova, University Goce Delcev–Stip

- Outsourcing and cooperation with third countries: Some observations from North Macedonia

II. Prospects for the future: Bypassing the system?

Keynote speaker: Professor Vincent Chetail, Director, Global Migration Centre, The Graduate Institute, Geneva

- Are the readmission agreements signed by European states an effective model for migration management? Do they raise human rights concerns?
- How can we ensure safe migratory routes in Europe in the light of recent developments?
- What role for outsourcing in the new European Pact on Asylum and Migration?
- And what about the Global Compact on Migration? New trends or just empty words?

Discussants: Professor Achilles Skordas, University of Bristol; Senior Research Fellow, Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law, Heidelberg

Dr Moritz Baumgärtel, Utrecht University; Fellow, The Netherlands Institute of Human Rights

- Regulating migratory flows extraterritorially: A policy necessity?
- Visa policies and carrier sanctions: A new restriction to the right to leave?
- Requesting asylum at pre-identified checkpoints and at Consulates post- NT and ND v Spain and the MN v Belgium cases: Old wine in new bottles?

Professor Gabriela Alexandra Oanta Oanta, Universidade da Coruña, Instituto Universitario de Estudios Europeos Salvador de Madariaga

- Spain's bilateral agreements with third countries on illegal immigration

Anna Fazzini, Università di Napoli L'Orientale

- The applicability of ECHR in the externalization of borders framework: Some observations on the notion of jurisdiction

Members of the MAPS Network are invited to ask questions and raise issues relevant to each session. Keynote speakers, discussants and participants are welcome to contribute a blog-size paper to the website of the project.